

Registering is like voting. Just pick your favorite option.

There are many easy ways to register to vote.

Register Online: Complete Service Arizona EZ Voter Registration at www.servicearizona.com or www.azsos.gov. You must have an Arizona Driver License and/or an Arizona non-operating Identification Card issued by the Motor Vehicle Division (MVD) after October 1, 1996.

Obtain Form Online: Get a printable form at www.azsos.gov and click on "Vote Arizona." Just fill out the form, print, sign and date, then affix proper postage and mail to the County Recorder of the county in which you are a legal resident.

Register at MVD: You can register at the Motor Vehicle Division by simply indicating you want to register to vote on your driver license application.

Request a Form by Mail: Legal residents can mail a written request for an Arizona Voter Registration form to their County Recorder. To find yours, visit www.azsos.gov/election/county.htm.

Request in Person: Visit your County Recorder in person and complete an Arizona Voter Registration form there.

To register successfully, you must:

- Be a U.S. citizen
- Be an Arizona resident
- Be 18 by election day
- Not be a convicted felon
- Not have been adjudicated incompetent

If this is your first time registering in Arizona or you have moved between Arizona counties, you'll need to provide proof of citizenship as set forth in the instructions. If you are registered in Arizona and use this registration form to change your address within a county, change your name, or change your political party affiliation, you do not need to provide proof of citizenship.

Visit www.azsos.gov or call 1-877-THE-VOTE.